

Norway's lies exposed by Wikileaks

Cable id: 07OSLO454

The 22nd October 2012 I woke up to interesting news about me and the Norwegian MFA. I honestly became shell shocked of the stupidity of Mr. Sondre Bjotveit. Here we have a senior official of the Royal Norwegian Ministry for Foreign Affairs crying on Uncle Sam's shoulder, indirectly asking USA to try to stop me telling the truth about Norway's support of the LTTE terrorism.

Mr. Sondre Bjotveit lied the US Embassy official straight in the face. Mr. Bjotveit said I was a convicted murderer sentenced to 10 years detention in 1998.

Nonsense, I was acquitted for homicide in 1997 and released from custody/detention in 1998. Then I travelled all over Norway participating in chess tournaments, including participating in several Norwegian Chess Championships.

In 2004 I participated in the WAPS conference as a speaker. How could I participate if I were detained? In my work as leader of NAT I traveled unrestricted all around the world researching various terrorist organizations including the LTTE.

How can I get visas to Australia if I was a convicted murderer? How could I go to Colombo I 2007 if I was in detention?

Since these lies came from the Royal Norwegian Embassy many foreign journalist believed these lies. Fortunately the Sri Lankan Government did not buy into the lies and smearing campaigns and allowed me to speak in Colombo.

In 2007 the USA was walking around with rubber soles on their shoes. They did not want to offend their NATO partner Norway prior to Norway's decision to purchase of new fighter planes. Norway decision was vital in order to get the rest of NATO to buy the fighter planes. Neglecting Norway's criminal support of the LTTE in Sri Lanka could have been the sacrificial lamb to get the plane deal.

Norway is now a founding partner in the Joint Strike Fighter program, which the U.S. Defense Department has described as the largest fighter aircraft program in history. Norway has now signed the order to buy 52 F-35A Lightning II jets. A 10 billion US dollar order.

Both Norwegian and US oil companies was interested in exploring, or should I say exploiting, the possible oil reserves outside the land previously occupied by the LTTE terrorists. Fortunately the people of Sri Lanka was not duped into a peace deal with the LTTE.

Mr. Bjotveit told the US Embassy I was endangering the peace process by presenting facts and documents to the Sri Lankan people.

Nonsense! The facts I presented in Colombo was known already. How can facts and the truth endanger the peace process? Lasting peace should be built on truth and trust.

The Norwegian MFA however seems to believe lasting peace could be achieved through to visiting strip tease clubs in Thailand, lots of alcohol, first class tickets and bribes.

Issue Date
According to Mr. Bjotveit I represented a threat to Mr. Erik Solheim's life. Nonsense.

Fortunately US intelligence agencies did not buy into the crap and fairytales Mr. Bjotveit told the US Embassy in Oslo. I have never experienced any obstacles in the NAT work from the USA.

History proves Erik Solheim is alive. Ousted from Norwegian politics! Mr. Solheim is elevated to a high paying in the job in the UN.

Not bad for a clown from the Royal Norwegian Socialist Left Party.

It puzzles me how anyone can become as unpopular as Mr. Erik Solheim by giving away money!

Wikileaks

We need to protect freedom of speech. Support Julian Assange request to get asylum in Ecuador.

Are you afraid of me Erik Solheim?

Erik Solheim cronies in the Norwegian MFA tell the US Embassy Erik Solheim fears for his life.

PST, CIA and me

PST is the Norwegian equivalent to the CIA in the USA. PST are hardworking people who collect and analyze information that could be important for national security.

PST is needed to monitor individuals and organizations that is a treat to Norway or could become a treat. They cooperate and exchange information with similar police organizations around the world.

PST has gradually got more power and resources to fight against internal and external enemies.

Unfortunately the PST is handcuffed by the politicians and cannot do a proper job. PST is a victim of political interference and has been used to monitor political opponents on the political left side of Norwegian politics.

I have always been in the political main stream on the political right side in Norwegian politics. Thereby categorized as "political correct". My agitation for respect for human rights and to crack down on terrorists using Norway as a safe-haven did not seem to worry the PST.

What might have created a headache for the PST is probably the many phone calls from the Norwegian MFA requesting the PST to attempt to stop me telling the truth. Since NAT published, legally obtained, unclassified documents from the Norwegian MFA there was nothing PST could do to stop the truth speaking nuisance, Falk Rovik.

PST was invited to the WAPS conference in 2004 and they participated. I have never had any problems with the PST, CIA or any other intelligence organizations. My experience is the opposite, the foreign intelligence organizations has been helpful.

The deputy director in PST is Mr. Jan F. Glentⁱⁱ worked previously as a district attorney and handled the case where I was acquitted for homicide. Mr. Jan F. Glent also handled the case against LTTE cadre Daniel Jeya and police officer. Nyhusmoen in the Norwegian sale of passport scandal.ⁱⁱⁱ Mr. Glent know I have not a criminal record and know about LTTE's criminal activities.

PST = THE NORWEGIAN CIA

NAT and the Government of Sri Lanka (GSL)

In the Cable Mr. Bjotveit alleges that GSL and Sri Lankan hard liners was supporting and funding NAT. This is fraudulent information from the Norwegian MFA. NAT have never received any funds from GSL or any citizen of Sri Lanka. NAT policies has always been: NAT pays for all the expenses accrued during our work and travels. NAT operatives are patriots working on minimal budgets. We have worked together with Sri Lankan patriots who has provided us valuable information for free. NAT are proud to have assisted to expose the criminal behavior of the Norwegian Government in Sri Lanka. NAT will not hesitate to do it again.

Wikileaks cable exposes US - Norway conspiracy

What was Mr. Bjotveit doing at the US EMBASSY crying about me? The cable show Norway closely working with the US State Department in the Sri Lanka peace facilitation. In Asia, Norway is much more political acceptable than the US. The cable give the impression the US is using Norway as a proxy to implement US strategies, in nations were the US have an image problem. Did Norway expect the US to put pressure on the Government of Sri Lanka to stop NAT repeating facts and provide un-classified documents in Sri Lanka? The attempt to revoke my human rights to express my views failed.

The US – Norway conspiracy will be a deterrent to those who use Norway as a peace facilitator.

Well, I do not want to speculate what strategies and objectives Mr. Bjotveit's had with his ridiculous statements and lies about me. Liability claims asking for compensation for Mr. Bjotveit fraudulent information and grave harassment will be forwarded to the Norwegian MFA.

If we don't believe in freedom of expression for people we despise, we don't believe in it at all.

Are you afraid of me Erik Solheim?

Interesting to see Mr. Bjotveit is deeply concerned about Erik Solheim safety. Very moving. I guess the US Embassy had to get some Kleenex tissue for Mr. Bjotveit so he could wipe away his crocodile tears for his friend Erik Solheim.

Erik Solheim and the PST know I have never posed any treat to Erik Solheim. Instead I have calmed down Erik Solheim's many victims and appealed to them to use peaceful methods to stop the Norwegian MFA support of terrorism.

The Royal Norwegian MFA and Solheim is not afraid of ME, but the TRUTH. The truth devastated the Norwegian MFA attempt to assist the LTTE to create a fascist state.

We invited Erik Solheim to participate in the WAPS Oslo conference. Mr. Solheim refused to return phone calls and reply to emails. The MFA manipulated Amnesty International (AI) General Secretary not to inform about AI work to stop LTTE's use of child soldiers at the WAPS conference.

Erik Solheim panicked when he became aware I should speak at a Conference in Colombo in 2007. Erik Solheim, his MFA cronies and LTTE did their utmost to stop me speaking. Fortunately there is freedom of speech in Sri Lanka.

No need to lose sleep due to me Erik! You would sleep better if you and the Norwegian MFA compensated and apologized to the victims of the Norwegian supported LTTE terrorism. I guess the chances for an apology is zero. Mr. Erik Solheim, in my eyes you will always be a pathetic coward scared of the truth!

Solheim stepped on LTTE toes the 17th May in his Norwegian national day speech. Erik Solheim basically told the LTTE to give up their dreams of creating a fascist terrorist state. Erik Solheim terminated the aid to Norwegian MFA friend Mr. Kumar Rupesinghe. The Norwegian MFA paid 6 million USD dollars for Kumar Rupesinghe organization "Foundation for Co-Existence" services. Mr. Kumar Rupesinghe became so frustrated for being ousted from the Norwegian MFA gravy train, so he sued Norway for another 1 million US dollars.

You have many enemies Mr. Solheim, and you have created the enemies yourself. Fortunately most of them are not like you Mr. Solheim, they have moral values and do not pose a threat.

Wikileaks

Freedom of speech is important for all of us. This right has to be protected and is a pillar in any democratic society. Sometimes the truth is painful and can endanger life. Those who have access to sensitive information should handle it with care. In the NAT our policies stayed 100% clear. We were only allowed to carry around unclassified information on our computers and not store any sensitive documents at home. We used nicknames on our informants. We did know there was a high risk of the LTTE injuring an informant or their family if they were suspected to providing NAT information.

The blame for the sensitive documents leaked has to be blamed on poor US security routines and poor security clearance screening. To put the blame on Mr. Julian Assange is wrong. He were only distributing already leaked information. Participating in distribution of the information did thousands of news editors around the world. Wikileaks had a screening procedure to reduce the risk for loss of life due to the leaked documents. In our point of view the US citizens responsible for poor security routines and poor security clearance screening should be liable. Clearly the once stealing the documents is guilty of gross negligence and multiple violations of US law. The organizations coincidentally receiving, screening, distributing and publishing documents is in a very different legal category, especially non- US citizens.

The witch-hunt for Mr. Assange, an Australian citizen, is wrong. The methods used is shameful. We support Mr. Assange plea for Asylum in Ecuador.

Classification of Cable id: 07OSLO454

The cable mentioning me is classified as confidential. I cannot understand how this cable can damage any country's national security. It reveals the Norwegian MFA providing false and fraudulent information about me to the US Embassy. The cable show Norway's biased facilitation and gross incompetence. Norway's incompetence is widely known and cannot be regarded as a state secret. In my opinion this cable should be classified as trash and not sent to Washington and numerous other US destinations.

ADDENDUM

1. Classification levels (Wikipedia)

Top Secret (TS)

The highest level of classification of material on a national level. Such material would cause "exceptionally grave damage" to national security if made publicly available.

Secret

Such material would cause "serious damage" to national security if it were publicly available.

Confidential

Such material would cause "damage" or be "prejudicial" to national security if publicly available.

Restricted

Such material would cause "undesirable effects" if publicly available.

Unclassified

Technically not a classification level, but is used for government documents that do not have a classification listed above. Such documents can sometimes be viewed by those without security clearance.

Classified By: Acting DCM Kristen F. Bauer, Reasons 1.4 (b) and (d) ¶1. (C) Summary.

On April 30 Sondre Bjoetveit, MFA Adviser in the Peace and Reconciliation Section, updated us on Norwegian peace efforts in Sri Lanka. He described MFA Special Envoy Jon Hanssen-Bauer's recent meetings with UK and South African government officials, in addition to sharing personal observations concerning the ever-worsening Sri Lankan political and military situation. Bjoetveit also discussed Falk Rune Rovik, a convicted Norwegian murderer who the MFA views as a destabilizing threat to the peace process and also a personal threat to Minister of International Development Erik Solheim. End Summary. Norwegians Speak with UK, South African Officials -----
----- ¶2. (C) Hanssen-Bauer traveled to London last week to consult with the UK Foreign Office and MP Paul Murphy, who previously traveled to Sri Lanka and will soon return to support existing facilitation efforts. Similarly, Hanssen-Bauer recently visited Pretoria, where the GSA Foreign Ministry expressed an interest in continuing to engage, but not initiate, peace dialogue efforts. Bjoetveit believed GSA interest was motivated by the strong, and politically powerful, Tamil community. Although originally part of the Indian diaspora during British colonial rule, the South African Tamils strongly sympathized with the plight of their Sri Lankan brethren. South African President Mbeki and GSL President Rajapaksa have separately met during an international conference in Havana, and shared experiences, with both leaders expressing an interest in continued dialogue. Former South African governmental officials have also shared views about life under apartheid rule with Sri Lankan colleagues, focusing upon the South African reconciliation efforts. Both UK and GSA officials emphasized to the Norwegians that the GON's role as facilitator was not to be supplanted, and that Norway's facilitation efforts were supported. Bjotveit did not describe how either the UK or the GSA would specifically complement the GON facilitation efforts. Thoughts on Military, Political Situation ----- ¶3. (C) Bjotveit reviewed the increasingly tense Sri Lankan political situation and worsening violence. Although the Cease Fire Agreement (CFA) still technically exists, it seems more form than substance. For example, while the GSL publicly advocates negotiating as a means to end its conflict with the Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam (LTTE), the GSL Secretary of Defense publicly resolved that a solution would SIPDIS likely occur only in two to three years, which offers a less-than-enthusiastic support of quickly ending the present conflict. Alternatively, the LTTE is feeling increasingly isolated on the global stage, with officials believing the only remaining option is to fight. ¶4. (C) Militarily, the Norwegians are concerned that GSL successes will only cause LTTE fighters to disperse and decentralize, raising the specter of an uncontrollable insurgency. The LTTE seems to also justify its recent aerial bombings of GSL oil reserves as a means of inhibiting governmental air attacks on the Tigers. Solheim's Safety; Seeming GSL Endorsement of Detractor ----- ¶5. (C) According to Bjotveit, the PST (Norway's primary intelligence agency) is closely following the actions of Falk Rune Rovik, an outspoken critic of Minister Solheim. Previously jailed for murder in 1997, Rovik served ten years of detention in a mental health institution. Viewed by Norwegian authorities as dangerous, he frequently speaks out against Norway's role in the Sri Lankan press, and most recently visited Toronto, Canada, where he purportedly met with members of Amnesty International. His views, which include accusing Norway of terrorism in Sri Lanka, have proven problematic and embarrassing to the GON, particularly given that Rovik is a Norwegian citizen, ¶6. (C) Bjotveit believes that Rovik is supported by the OSLO 00000454 002 OF 002 GSL, and receives funding from Sri Lankan hard-liners. For example, the GSL Ministry of Defense recently posted an op-ed from Rovik and its website also previously advertised one of Rovik's speaking engagements. Bjotveit denied that these inflammatory efforts tacitly (if not overtly) supported by the GSL were detracting from the GON's facilitation efforts. He admitted, however, that the Norwegian cultural predilection for dialogue was being tested by Rovik's destabilizing actions, which the MFA has responded to in statements to Sri Lankan press. Comment ----- ¶7. (C) The GON continues to press the peace process, while recognizing that both the GSL and LTTE have violated the CFA. Rovik further complicates matters and may pose a potential threat to Solheim's personal security. The GSL's apparent encouragement of Rovik's public diatribe against GON efforts is one more destabilizing factor. Although the resilient Norwegians seem calm and focused, their steadfastness to resolving the Sri Lankan crises is being sorely tested by the deepening Sri Lanka violence and Rovik's protests.
